1. Reborn

On the seventh day, I wondered, will the sun rise tomorrow?
On the seventh day, I wondered, can this be the end?
Drained of all my will and hope, looming shadows descend.
On my final day, I wondered, will I see tomorrow?
Pursuit of all the worldly goals slowly gave way to sorrow.
Broken down, I looked around, took one more fleeting glance.
Death was near, it all was clear. I was given one more chance.
I am reborn.

2. Eighth Day

Seven days and seven ways and seven omens past,
Seven years and all the fears that never came to pass.
So now what happens afterwards when doomsday doesn't come?
Pick up all the pieces and resume what we've begun.

Desperate and defeated when I thought it was the end,
I cried up the heavens for a sign that it could send.
But nothing, not a single word, I stood with bated breath.
No hopes, no fears, not even tears, I felt the chill of death.

And on the eighth day, the sun will shine again.
The world will keep on turning, we'll look back at where we've been.
In each fleeting moment and transcending all of time,
Through high and low and dark and light, this endless journey mine.

Death of sorrow, birth of tomorrow. Death of sorrow, birth of tomorrow.
Forget tomorrow - In the ashes lies the key.
Get past your sorrow - It can take you where you want to be, to start again tomorrow.

And on the eighth day, the sun will shine again.
The world will keep on turning, moving us from where we've been.
In each fleeting moment and transcending all of time,
Through high and low and dark and light, resume the upward climb.

All the expectation brought the tower to the ground.
The rigid walls that held the power all came crumbling down.
So now we have to reassess and redirect our force,
When the end is not the end, but just a change of course.

And on the eighth day, the sun will shine again.
The world will keep on turning, moving us from where we've been.
In each fleeting moment moving us through time,
Through high and low and dark and light, resume the upward climb.
And when the eighth day comes it's one more chance to shine,
Through high and low and dark and light, this endless journey mine.

3. Hurry Up and Wait

Start the race, resume the chase, pick up the pace, it's all a waste... of time.
Hurry up and wait!

Another day has come and gone, never to return.
Rushing through our obligations, waiting for our turn.
Two steps forward, one step back, and focused on the lack.
No time left to stop or think, you must pick up the slack.
Running out of time... hurry to the back of the line... Running out of time...
I run my life by time, but time is just eluding me.

The time has come and gone and now it's getting late.
Seems like I live my life to hurry up and wait.

Just past the starting gate, accelerate!
And when we're finished here, is it too late?
We ask the urgent questions, impatiently we wait.
Too rushed to hear the answers of our future and our fate.
Running out of time... hurry to the back of the line...
Running out of time... don't waste my time!

I run my life by time, but time is always running me!

The time has come and gone and now it's getting late.
Seems like we live our lives to hurry up and wait.
The time has come and gone and now it's getting late.
Why do we live our lives to hurry up and wait?

Time sneaks up and passes by, still we wait and don't know why.
Start the race, resume the chase, pick up the pace, it's all a waste... of time.
Hurry up and wait!

Uncomfortable in silence, preoccupied with time.
Focused on the trivia while we wait in line.
Frenzied in anxiety, the racing of the rats.
Waiting for the perfect future, wondering where it's at.

Running out of time! Running out of time!

The time has come and gone and now it's really late.
Seems like we live our lives to hurry up and wait.
The time has come and gone, come and gone...
Why do we live our lives to hurry up and wait?

Start the race, resume the chase, pick up the pace, it's all a waste... of time.
Hurry up and wait!

4. Long Ago

I can't stand looking back and the future holds no place for me.
All the love had ceased and died when the journey became necessity.

I don't know where it went. Oh, could this be the end or a chance to start again?
This love died long ago. I'm only going through the motions.
Immersed in what I've known, I've reached the end of my devotion.

Beat the dead horse 'til it bleeds, never a care for what it needs.
Lose another pint of blood. How can it work if there's no love?

I don't know where it went. Oh, could this be the end or a chance to start again?
This love died long ago. I'm only going through the motions.
Immersed in what I've known, I've reached the end of my devotion.

Take away the reasons I began. Could it be the chance to start again?
Somebody once told me that persistence was the key.
Never give up trying, never give up on your dreams.

I don't know where it went. Oh, could this be the end or a chance to start again?
This love died long ago. I'm only going through the motions.
Immersed in what I've known, I've reached the end of my devotion.
Long ago. Years ago. Long ago. This love died long ago!

5. Never Again

Pulled into the drama when I tried to lend a hand.
Playing on my sympathy, exactly as you planned.
But too quickly I agreed, when you said you were in need.
You pulled me in again, I still remember when, the first time that you asked, you said would be the last.
And I don't really want to, but don't know what else to do.
No never, never again, no never, never again, no never, never again, no never, no never!
You pulled me in again, I still remember when, the first time that you asked, you said would be the last.
No never, never again, no never, never again, no never, never again, no never!
Never! Never! Never! Never! Never! Never! Never! Never!

But the voice inside my head has me convinced that this is it.
Just the one last time and then I'll quit.
And though I never wanted this, somehow you pulled me in again.
It's no use trying to pretend, 'cause you know it will never end. Never! Never! Never!
Never!
No never, never again, no never, never again, no never, never again, no never!
Never! Never! Never! Never! Never! Never! Never! Never!

Once again, you used me and you're nowhere to be found.
Wondering where you would be if I was not around.
But too quickly we forget, now I'm filled with just regret.

You pulled me in again, I still remember when.
Let's do it again... let's do it again... let's do it again... let's do it again...
How did I end up here? Just wanna disappear!
Now I know I can't trust you. The hell that you put me through!
No never, never again, no never, never again, no never, never again, no never, no never!

You pulled me in again, I still remember when, the first time that you asked, you said would be the last.
No never, never again, no never, never again, no never, never again, no never!
Never! Never! Never! Never! Never! Never! Never! Never!

But the voice inside my head has me convinced that we're all done.
Just the one last time and then I'll run.
Don't want this obligation, but it is so hard to say "No."
It's time to put it to an end, or it will never let me go. Never! Never! Never! Never!
No never, never again, no never, never again, no never, never again, no never!
Never! Never! Never! Never! Never! Never! Never! Never!
You'll live to regret! I will not forget!

Let's do it again... let's do it again... let's do it again... let's do it again...
Don't wanna do it again! Don't wanna do it again! No never, never again!
Never! Never! Never! Never! Never! Never! Never! Never!

6. Dark and Cold

Don't know why the people I see are wandering through the darkness.
Everyone I know and everyone I meet are wandering through the darkness.
Do they know? They're wandering around, they never find their way.
I see them everywhere. Don't wanna stop and stare.
I know that this ain't right. Just want to get out of sight.

The dark and cold, oh no. Oh don't they know?
The dark and cold, oh no. In the dark and cold.

People like me and people like you, you know they haven't got a clue.
Rushing around and they don't know why, from birth until the time they die.
Do they know? They're wandering around. Oh, will they find their way.
I see them everywhere. Don't wanna stop and stare.
I know that this ain't right. Just want to get out of sight.

The dark and cold, oh no. Why don't they know?
The dark and cold, oh no. Out in the dark and cold.

Can it be I don't want to see? No!
I think they're just like me. Oh no, no no no!
Just wandering the dark and cold.
Just want to leave the dark and cold.

The dark and cold, oh no. Why don't they know?
The dark and cold, oh no. We're all wandering the dark and cold!

7. No Matter What

We've heard the things they say. We've seen the games they play.
In the end, we know we have to find a better way.

I am alive and I am free, to choose the path in front of me.
This current life of flesh and bone, it's not about the things I own.
Power and greed are the ways that they feed... on you and me.
No matter what you say, no matter what you do.
I see through all the lies, I'll never be like you.

Their vengeful gods and backward rules, fear and greed their chosen tools.
Sickened, weakened minded fools, fill the world they wish to rule.
Power and greed are the ways that they feed... on you and me.
No matter what you say, no matter what you do.
I will not be your fool, I'll never be like you.

I am alive and I am free. Free to choose my destiny.

They preach the word of separation, spreading fear and degradation.
Control the wealth, the population, and finally our domination.
Power and greed are the ways that they feed... on you and me.
No matter what you say, no matter what you do.
I will not be subdued, I'll never be like you!

I am alive and I am free!

8. What Stirs My Soul

The roar of guitars and the power of thunder,
The sound that you hear is the spell that I'm under.
Hits like a sledge hammer, cuts like a knife, this powerful music brings me to life!

A sonic explosion, a punch to the jaw. It's loud and aggressive, the music is raw.
And if you don't like it then you don't know. This music within me, it stirs my soul!

Harder! Faster! Louder! I love this music!
Harder! Faster! Louder! I love this music!
I love that heavy Rock-n-Roll! It's what stirs my soul!

Entrained by the rhythm, I'm under its spell,
Pulled back and forth between heaven and hell.
The power of thunder, ripped from the sky. It's burning within me until I die!

Not everyone gets it. It's misunderstood.
What can I say? It just makes me feel good!
Every day that passes and all I do. Oh, this powerful music is what will pull me through!

Harder! Faster! Louder! I love this music!
Harder! Faster! Louder! I love this music!
I love that heavy Rock-n-Roll! It's what stirs my soul!

9. Find Your Power

Black cloud looming overhead that only I can see,
Has reached its saturation point, now pouring down on me.
I struggle to maintain the flood that's building from within.
Now I've reached the breaking point, it's seeping through my skin.

Searching for the inner strength, to hold up my façade.
Send the demons back to hell, and cry out to my God.
This is the time when we have to choose.
Find your power. This is the hour. Find your power.

Thoughts that lurk subconsciously, inflicting torment from within.
Ravaged soul that they can't see, assuring me I'll never win.
This is the time when we have to choose.
Find your power. This is the hour. Find your power.

Growing tired of the fight, the demon's song is getting old.
No more crawling in the cold. Now I'm taking back control.
This is the time when we have to choose.
Find your power. This is the hour. Find your power.

This is the time when we win or lose.
Find your power. Find your power. Find your power.
Now's the hour. Your final hour to find your power.

10. Never Want to Lose You

I think of all my hopes and dreams and what I'm supposed to be.
In all my thoughts I always see you right there next to me.
And even though I still don't know what I was meant to do,
One thing I know for sure, I only want to be with you.

If I were to lose you, it'd be criminal, 'cause you and I together, we're invincible.
Every day with you is unforgettable, 'cause you and I together, we're incredible.

The years have passed and dreams have changed, but one thing remains strong.
My love for you, my hopes for us, the reasons for this song.
With everything that we've been through, we've only just begun.
I want to spend my life with you until our days are done.

If I were to lose you, it'd be criminal, 'cause you and I together, we're invincible.
Every day with you is unforgettable, 'cause you and I together, we're incredible.
Without you... I don't know what I would do. Without you... never want to lose you.

I hope and pray you feel the same, and never want to part.
You've brought so much into my life and opened up my heart.
The only one I'll ever want, or love, or need this much,
In you, for now and ever more, I place my love and trust.

If I were to lose you, it'd be criminal, 'cause you and I together, we're invincible.
Every day with you is unforgettable, 'cause you and I together, we're incredible.
Without you... I don't know what I would do. Without you... never want to lose you.
